

SESSION I

08.30 - 09.00 Opening 5th Satellite Meeting

09.00 - 09.30 Review of EFC training and performance standards

Charles Redman - President of the European Federation for Colposcopy, Consultant Gynaecologist, University Hospital of North Midlands, UK

09.30 - 10.00 Should colposcopy be a core skill for all gynaecologists?

Prof. Angelique Goverde, Chair of Standing Committee on Training and Assessment at European Board and College of Obstetrics and Gynaecology

10.00 - 10.30 Discussion

10.30 - 11.00 Coffee Break

SESSION II

11.00 - 11.30 Training and Exit assessment

The case for training in colposcopy

Ameli Trope, Head of the Norwegian Cervical Cancer Screening Programme

11.30 - 12.00 The case for an EFC Diploma in Sweden

Prof. Sonia Anderson, Professor of Karolinska University Hospital, Stockholm

12.00 - 12.30 Discussion

12.30 - 13.30 Lunch Break

SESSION III

13.30 - 14.00 Performance standards

Karl Ulrich Petry - Head of Department of Gynaecology and Obstetrics, University Medical Center Göttingen, Germany

SESSION IV

14.00 - 14.30 Educational developments

Colposcopy Skills development and assessment, a dynamic online method

Manolis Papagiannakis, PhD, Clinical Manager, DYSIS Medical, UK

14.30 - 15.00 Would the Mobile ODT system support training?

Prof. Albert Singer, Professor of Gynaecology (Emeritus) at University of London

15.00 - 15.30 Coffee Break

SESSION V

15.30 - 16.00 Challenges facing colposcopy in Eastern Europe /Central Asia

Prof. Tamar Alibegashvili, Gynaecologist at National Screening Center; Chachava clinic, Georgia

16.00 - 16.30 Opportunities for collaboration

Speaker TBC

16.30 - 17.00 Discussion

17.00 - 17.30 Summary and future plans

Charles Redman - President of the European Federation for Colposcopy, Consultant Gynaecologist, University Hospital of North Midlands, UK