

Programme of the 7th EFC Satellite Meeting

8th May 2021, virtual edition

8.30 -10.00 HPV persistence, what should we do?

Chairs: Christine Bergeron and Olaf Reich

8.30-8.50 Virological aspects of HPV persistency. Magnus von Knebel-Döberitz ,

9.00-9.20 How meaningful is HPV persistency? The Swedish epidemiology experience. Kristina Elfgrén

9.30 -10.20 The challenges of HPV persistency. Real life experience and data from Italy. G Rossi

10.00-10.30 Coffee break

10.30-12.00 How to handle media / social media?

Chairs: Ameli Trope and Xavier Carcopino

10.30-10.35 Introduction: Meeting moderator Elisabeth Jakobsen (Head of communication Cancer Registry of Norway)

10.35-10.55 What caused the Irish screening scandal and what can we learn from it: Dr. Grainne Flannelly, 20 min

10.55-11.15 The Danish experience: How Denmark managed to turn around the low HPV vaccination rate after vaccine controversies: Stop HPV Eva Sidsel Anger Pedersen 20 min

11.15-11.25 The Norwegian experience: Have we just been lucky? Dr. Ameli Tropé 10 min

11.25-11.45 Role play: How to deal with demanding and persistent journalist. Dr. Jana Zodzika and Elisabeth Jakobsen 20 min

11.45- 12.00 Summary: How can we co-operate in our dealings with the media? Elisabeth. Jakobsen

12.00-13.00 Lunch

13.00-14.20 EFC Guidelines

Chairs: Margaret Cruickshank and Murat Gultekin

13.00-13.10 Introduction: Do we need colposcopy guidelines, what kind and for whom? Murat. Gultekin

13.10-13.30 New EFC Short guidelines, background and purpose. Charles Redman

13.30-13.50 National guidelines in Europe, analysis. Mihaela Grigore

14.00-14.20 Making EFC-ESGO colposcopy guidelines, Margaret Cruickshank

14.30-15.00 Coffee break

15.00-16.30 Young colposcopists in Europe

Chairs: Pekka Nieminen and Jana Zodzika

15.00-15.10 Uliana Tabuica: Screening in Moldova

15.10-15.20 Damien Dexeus: Procare Research Grant

15.20-15.30 Best posters no 3

15.30-15.40 Best posters no 2

15.50-16.00 Best posters no 1 Pekka

16.00-16.30 Round table discussion: How should we train young colposcopists? The opinions of the trainees and trainers (3 young colposcopist from Europe and X. Carcopino and J. Zodzika)

16.30 End of the 7th EFC Satellite Meeting